Formerly
The Undergraduate
Founded in 1830

Middlebury Campus

Member
Eastern Intercollegiate
Newspaper Association

VOL. XXII MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE, MIDDLEBURY, VT., MARCH 24, 1926 No. 23

DEBATE TRIO LOSES TO BOSTON COLLEGE BY SPLIT DECISION

Unbeaten B. C. Team Has Good Delivery, Strong Arguments

CLOSE DEBATE WON BY 2 TO 1 VOTE

Veteran Middlebury Team To Close Season at Maine Thursday

(Special to THE CAMPUS)

Boston, Mass., March 24.—The Middlebury College debating team, upholding the affirmative side of the question of government ownership of the coal mines, lost a two to one decision to Boston College here last night. Both colleges were represented by unusually strong trios and had strong and effective arguments. The winning team had a very fine flow of oratory. It was the fifth consecutive victory for the Boston College team which is undefeated this season. They have previously beaten Dartmouth, Clark, M. I. T. and Fordham.

Middlebury was represented on the platform by Dana S. Hawthorne, '26, captain, William T. Hade '26, and E. Marion Reighard '27. Hawthorne was the most effective speaker but both of the other men did good work with their points. The Boston College team was made up of Joseph Dolan, James Monks and Walter McCracken.

The judges of the debate were Hon. Philip J. O'Connell, Boston University '95, Judge of the Massachusetts Superior Court; Leland Powers, A. B., A. M., Dartmouth '11, Harvard Law '14; and Eugene B. Jackson, A. B., A. M., Brown '02, Harvard Law '05.

The debaters will travel to Orono, Me., tomorrow to meet the University of Maine in the evening, Middlebury will uphold the affirmative of the question "Resolved, That the Federal Government should own and operate the coal mines of the United States." This will probably be the last debate of the year, although it is possible that one may be scheduled with St. Michael's after vacation in order to give experience to some of the new men on the squad.

The Maine debate will probably be another close one. Last year a Middlebury team, made up of Leiby '25, Anderson '25 and Hade '26, debating on the home platform, won a decision over Maine. The Vermont team which lost to Middlebury earlier in the season won a two to one decision at Orono last week. This will be the last intercollege debate for Hawthorne, Hade and Reighard, all of whom have been active in forensics for the past three years.

Proficient Students In Biology Win Trip

Helen Lindquist, '26, Charles Wright, '26, Harold Downey, '26, Mildred Goss, '28, Dorothy Abel, '28, and Helen Walter, '29, are the fortunate students in the biology department to have been chosen by their professors to go on a trip to the New York Museum. The excursion is a reward for those who have attained the highest efficiency in their classes. The students will leave Thursday noon with Professor Longwell, and will spend three days in New York before going to their respective homes for vacation. They are to spend most of their time in an interesting study of specimens at the Museum

JUNIOR WEEK PROGRAM

Thursday, May 13

2:30 Baseball, Middlebury vs. Vermont.
3:00 Tennis Match, Middlebury vs. Vermont.
8:00 To be arranged.

Friday, May 14

10:00 Interfraternity Stunts.
2:30 Baseball, Middlebury vs. Tufts.
3:00 Tennis Match, Middlebury vs. Tufts.
8:00 Junior Promenade.

Saturday, May 15

10:00 Band Concert.
11:00 Rope Pull.
11:15 Departmental Tour.
2:00 Matinee of Junior Play, Honor Bright.
2:30 Interfraternity Track Meet and Relay.
8:00 Junior Play Honor Bright.
10:30 Interfraternity Sing.

Sunday, May 16

5:00 Vesper Service.
7:00 Inter-sorority Sing.

JUNIORS LIST MANY EVENTS ON PROGRAM

Tentative Schedule Shows Promise of Interesting Week-End

Plans for a most successful Junior Week are already well under way according to announcements made today by Foster R. Clement, the Junior Week chairman, and definite announcements regarding many of the activities of the week-end will be published shortly after the Easter recess. A tentative schedule has been worked out and is printed herewith. The Junior Week committee has in mind many unusual features upon which the various committees are already hard at work.

The week as usual will include baseball games with two rivals, one with University of Vermont for state honors. Interfraternity stunts which are always one of the big drawing cards of the week, again appear on this year's program. To take the place of the usual State Track meet which this year is away from Middlebury there has been arranged an Interfraternity meet which should prove to be a strong drawing card. New features already scheduled include an open air concert by the reorganized Middlebury Band, which has already made a name for itself in its recent out-state trip; a matinee for the Junior Play, and the rope pull to be held this year on the campus behind Old Chapel with the hydrant water as the obstacle. In case of inclement weather, tea dances will be held in the afternoons.

All in all events are shaping themselves in a most promising manner at present and the outlook is favorable for a week-end that will be truly memorable.

Hade to Be Middlebury Delegate at Convention

William T. Hade '26 is to represent Middlebury at the national convention of Tau Kappa Alpha, national debating fraternity, which will be held in Indianapolis, Ind., April 2 and 3. Hade will also represent the other chapters of this district, inasmuch as the Middlebury chapter is the only one in New England which is sending a delegate.

Miss Clara B. Knapp of the Home Economics Department spoke on the subject of "Dress" at last night's meeting of the Y. W. C. A.

MALAM AND LEE ARE CHOSEN TO PUBLISH 1928 KALEIDOSCOPE

Experienced on Publications; Fales and Lockerby To Assist

Charles F. Malam of St. Johnsbury and W. Storrs Lee of Baltic Vonn., were chosen Thursday by the class of 1928 to serve as editor-in-chief and business manager, respectively, of the 1928 Kaleidoscope. At the same time Alice Fales of Detroit, Mich., was elected associate editor and Florence K. Lockerby, of Rutland was named assistant business manager. Following the custom of the past few years, the elections took place early in order that the staff may decide on the general plan of its book this spring and be prepared to start intensive work in the fall. The book will be published in the spring of 1927.

The four who have been chosen to head the staff are well qualified by experience for their work. Malam, Lee and Miss Fales have all been active in publication work, especially on the CAMPUS and Saxonian. Malam is on the staff of both the Saxonian and the Blue Baboon and has worked for two years as a reporter on the CAMPUS staff. He was the winner of the short story contest recently held by the Saxonian. He is a member of the Delta Upsilon fraternity.

(Continued on page 3)

FAMOUS AUTHOR TO SPEAK IN CHAPEL

Norman Angell, Who Wrote "The Great Illusion," Here April 15

Norman Angell, the famous English author and lecturer, is to speak before the student body of Middlebury at chapel the morning of April 15, it was announced today. Middlebury is unusually fortunate to be able to secure him for he is one of the foremost authors of the day.

Although he is an Englishman by birth, he spent part of his youth in America, has been a frequent visitor to this country, and for many years has been a constant contributor to the American press. Consequently he is well able to make the treatment of his lectures interesting to an American audience. He is known to be a very interesting speaker as well as writer and it is said that his ideal of a lecture is a "conversation with the audience."

Mr. Angell's best known book is "The Great Illusion", published in 1910. It has sold over a half million copies and has been translated into twenty-five different languages. Written before the Great War, it treats of the futility of war, and it is said that all of the author's arguments were borne out by the events of the Great War. He has written many other books on politics and the political aspects of wars.

The London Nation has said of him, "He must rank among the greatest of our pamphleteers, perhaps the greatest since Swift. . . a fervor, a simplicity and a force which no political writer of our generation has equalled."

Walter Lippman, editor of the New York World, and a well-known American author, in describing an address by Mr. Angell said, "It has never been put more eloquently or more impressively: done with a skill, and good humor and damaging logic, unequalled, I believe, by any advocate in the English-speaking world."

FACULTY APPROVES PLAN WHICH WILL ALLOW SELECTED NUMBER OF SENIORS TO PURSUE STUDIES INDEPENDENTLY

To Be Open To Not More Than 10 Per Cent. of Class of 1927

WORK MAY BE DONE OUTSIDE OF CLASSES

Students Will Work Under Direction of Heads of Departments

A plan which will allow a limited number of selected students to pursue independent study during their senior year, will be put into operation at Middlebury next year, it was officially announced yesterday. The plan, which is explained below, was formulated and proposed by the curriculum committee and at the faculty meeting on Wednesday, March 17, it was voted that it should be open to not more than ten per cent. of the class of 1927, who have made an average grade of 80 per cent. or over during the three preceding years.

Under this plan, applications may be made for consideration by elegible students to the heads of the departments in which they wish to work, and the department heads will then refer these applications, together with their recommendations thereon, to the curriculum committee which will make the final selections from the entire list of applicants, after careful consideration of all available data concerning them.

The students then chosen will then be assigned to the department heads, through whom they made their applications, as their permanent advisers who are to be personally responsible for the direction, proper pursuit, and completion of the year's work by the appointees under their charge. Not more than two students shall be assigned to any one department.

The minimum work for the year under this plan must be fully equivalent to that required in ten ordinary courses regularly open to seniors but it may be done wholly outside of classes or in any combination of class work and independent study upon which student and adviser agree. Upon completion of the year's work each of these students shall be required to pass a comprehensive oral and written examination by a committee of the faculty consisting in each case of the adviser as chairman, and two others invited by him to act as examiners. The final grade of any student may rest entirely upon the examination or this may be given only partial weight—one-third, one-half, or two-thirds—as the adviser may determine in each case. Further details will be given at a meeting, as soon as may be after the coming recess, of interested students and members of the curriculum committee.

Vacation Starts Friday

The long-waited Easter recess starts Friday noon at eleven o'clock. After ten days of vacation, classes will start again at eight o'clock Tuesday morning, April 6. As usual, cuts taken directly before and after the vacation will count double. Classes will be shortened to forty-five minutes each and chapel will be omitted Friday morning, in order that the students may be dismissed at eleven o'clock.

FROSH THESPIANS SCORE BIG SUCCESS

Y.K.W. Praises Play's Cast; McLean and Harworth Show Ability

"THE GOOSE HANGS HIGH"

Bernard Ingals	David H. McLean
Eunice Ingals	Margaret Harworth
Noel Derby	Samuel W. Pattee
Leo Day	F. Ryeburn Lynch
Rhoda	Bernice Munn
Julia Murdoch	Ruth Spaulding
Mrs. Bradley,	Elizabeth McDermott
Hugh Ingals	Raymond J. Saulnier
Ronald Murdoch	Henry M. Weston
Lois Ingals	Mary-Alice Drake
Bradley Ingals,	Raymond F. Bosworth
Dagmar Carroll	Helen R. Walter
Clem	Otis R. Jason

Elliott Kimberley, William B. Gazdagh

I am aware that in times past I have indulged too freely in superlatives, because I have none left to describe this thoroughly delightful presentation of Lewis Beach's play. It is also true, with this Freshman cast to criticize, that I must not indulge in superlatives lest I take pledges of the future. So I am going about the matter indirectly and comment upon the uncanny foresight shown by Mr. Clark in casting the play. How did he know that from the first entrance to the last curtain the people he picked out would work together so perfectly? How did he know that they fitted their parts so well? Take that man Day, Mr. Lynch knew all about him and showed it. And that man Kimberley, Mr. Gazdagh had him thoroughly assimulated. The one cajoled, the other bellowed. Cajolery won an invitation to dinner, bellowing the grace of a black eye. Take Ronald Murdoch and his mother. Didn't she have little Ronny tied to her apron strings? He was Mamma's little pet all right. Follow these doses by taking Rhoda and Clem. They didn't run together but they ran well. Rhoda was so grieved that the twins forgot her; and Clem was such an ass to propose going and not coming. I guess we had better take Noel Derby and Mrs. Bradley next. Noel was a good sport and Mrs. Bradley a chip off the old block, a dyed in the wool conservative. It was good to see them arrange together the happiness of the Ingals family. The twins didn't have to be taken; they just came and things livened up at once. Modern ideas got an airing, and old fashioned notions came to their own in those two. Hugh and Dagmar furnished the love relief. It was finely done. Bernard and Eunice gave the pathos expuisitely. And Molecule Haller played her modest and assuming part without a yip.

Many will comment on Miss Drake's

(Continued on page 2)

E. I. N. A. Convention To Be Held at Dartmouth

The seventh annual convention of the Eastern Intercollegiate Newspaper Association, of which the Middlebury CAMPUS is a member, will be held in Hanover, N. H., May 28 and 29. Representatives of nineteen of the leading college papers in the East will be the guests of "The Dartmouth," the daily paper of Dartmouth College.

Kappa Delta Rho

1929

Theodore C. Kramer

MIDDLEBURY CAMPUS

Member of the Eastern Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

Published every Wednesday of the college year excepting holidays observed by the college.

Entered as second-class matter, February 28, 1913, at the postoffice at Middlebury, Vermont, under the Act of March, 1879.

EDITORIAL STAFF

JAMES S. JACKSON, '26, Editor-in-Chief

CHARLOTTE RAYMOND, '26, Associate Editor

News Editors

James C. McLeod '26 Helen K. Whipple '27

Assistant Editors

Howard W. Cutler, '27 Martha E. Gordon, '27

Celian H. Abbott, '28 Alice Fales, '28

Sports Editor

Lloyd C. Harris '27

BUSINESS STAFF

EDWARD S. HICKCOX, '26, Business Mgr.

DOROTHY A. HAYNES, '26, Associate Manager

Advertising Manager E. Milton Egan, '26

Circulation Manager Viola Palmer, '26

Assistant Business Managers

John E. Van Hoven, '26 Ruth Piper, '26

Harry P. Graves, '27 Bernice L. Clark, '26

Treasurer

John A. Fletcher, '87

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2.00 A YEAR

The CAMPUS heartily welcomes communications but does not necessarily endorse opinions contained therein. All communications must be signed but the writer's name will be withheld on request.

Vol. XXII. March 24, 1926 No. 23

With this issue, the Campus suspends publication until Wednesday, April 14.

The Campus takes pleasure in announcing the election of Florence Porter '28, Frank DeWitt '29, Otis R. Jason '29, Arthur E. Newcomb '29, and Raymond J. Saulnier '29, to the position of reporters.

"AN EMPTY BAG—"

When the class of 1926 leaves Middlebury in June, it will be with the feeling that it has left many things undone. It has been involved in so many affairs in its four years' stay here that it will be impossible to have them all brought to satisfactory conclusions. But there is one matter which should be brought up again and definitely settled before the class of 1926 graduates. We refer to freshman rules and their enforcement.

The present seniors were the last to feel the sting of the paddle. They were the last class to tremble in fear at the thought of what might happen if they did not obey the rules. Since then, paddling has not been allowed. Increasingly there has been a laxity in the enforcement of the freshman rules. Despite all the threats and pleadings which may be made, a fresh man will obey the rules only to the degree that he pleases as long as he knows that infractions will result in no serious consequences. The rules are as ineffective as a club of straw when there is no means of enforcing them. They are worse than useless for it gives the freshman a sense of personal superiority to be able to break a rule and get away with it safely. It would be better if there were no rules at all.

It is only the seniors who can appreciate the true significance of the situation which exists at the present time, for they are the only ones who know what a real hazing is. They are in a position to judge as to the relative merits of enforced rules and non-enforced rules. It therefore is important that something be done about the matter before this class leaves. If no definite action is taken now, it can be safely predicted that rules which are enforced will never be restored at Middlebury, for the simple reason that there will never again be a body here which realizes, from actual experience, the value of compelling freshmen to obey rules.

Speaking from actual experience, we believe that it is valuable both for the college as a whole and for individuals, to have freshman rules which are enforced, by the paddle if necessary. We also believe that the conditions of the past three years, during which there has, of necessity, been an increased laxity of discipline on the freshmen, prove the necessity of having rules which can be enforced.

It is vitally important that some action be taken this spring in regard to this matter. Either some adequate means of enforcing rules must be provided, or else the rules should be finally and definitely abolished. We favor strict rules with strict enforcement, but most of all we favor action. No rules at all would be better for the college than the half-way conditions which now exist.

Critic Praises Dramatic Ability of Freshmen

(Continued from page 1)

lively and spontaneous presentation of the character of Lois and say she was the queen of the evening. Many will concede this but claim that Mr. Bosworth was the king. Now this is probably all true, but to me the characters presented with the most delicacy and conviction were those of Dagmar and Hugh, and Eunice and Bernard. We have always during the love scenes of former plays been disturbed by the giggling of the saps in the audience who cannot forget the persons of the actors. During the scenes between Dagmar and Hugh, there were no gigles. The audience could not pay a higher compliment than that. Miss Walter is to be congratulated that she succeeded so well with so little preparation; Mr. Saulnier that he played the part of Hugh with such admirable taste. The artistry of his first entrance was perfect, and gave tone to all his work.

I must, however, especially comment upon the work of Mr. McLean and Miss Harworth. It was my privilege to see each production of the play and to feel the sincerity of Mr. McLean's presentation of Bernard Ingals grow upon me increasingly each time. It was restrained, but definite, direct and convincing. Miss Harworth's presentation of Eunice Ingals was, to my mind, one of the finest pieces of acting we have seen upon the Playhouse stage. Her interpretation was refined, serious, delightful. She knew how to express in every pose the character she was presenting. The very droop of her shoulders in moments of dejection was eloquent of feeling. By the time she is a Senior she will be as finished an actress as the college has produced especially if she takes care to train herself out of a somewhat hurried enunciation.

I have already used so much space that I have no room to mention Mr. Clark's many and efficient backstage assistants whom he so glowingly described upon the programs. The stage setting was unique and beautiful as well as effective. All the details of the presentation were handled with distinction. It moved smoothly, without hitches, save in the curtain, and the whole reflects the utmost credit upon the director. The Freshmen are to be congratulated that they have three years ahead of them in which to give many repititions of their first success.

Y. K. W.

ex-'23—Leslie G. Moyles was seriously injured on March 18, when his car collided with the Boston & Maine at St. Johnsbury, Vt. He tried to stop his car but the brakes did not hold. He was rushed to the local hospital and his left leg was amputated above the ankle.

WEEK-END SOCIAL EVENTS

Alpha Xi Delta Formal

The annual formal dance of the Alpha Pi Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta was held Saturday evening in the Addison House. The hall was attractively decorated in lavender and yellow. Dancing was enjoyed from seven until eleven-forty. The music was furnished by Gruggel's Serenaders.

The chaperones were: Dean Eleanor S. Ross, Miss Marion L. Young, Professor and Mrs. R. H. White, Professor and Mrs. R. L. Barney. The representatives from other fraternities were: Pi Beta Phi, Elizabeth Howard; Delta Delta Delta, Mabel Benedict; Sigma Kappa, Ruth Jackson; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Florence Smith; Phi Mu, Hazel Hughes, and Ruth Mehuron.

The guests present included Helen Cleveland, '24, Madge Merritt, '24, Jessie Bennett, '24, Annie Smith, '26, Helen Dunz, '25, and Elizabeth Johnson, Burlington, Vt.

Chi Psi Ball

The annual Chi Psi Ball was held Saturday evening, March 20. Dinner was served in the Lodge and dancing took place in the Playhouse where decorations had formed a pirate's den. The Tom Thumb orchestra from Norwich, Conn., furnished music. Professor and Mrs. E. C. Bryant, Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Eddy, Prof. and Mrs. P. N. Swett, Prof. and Mrs. A. M. Brown were chaperones. Representatives included Joseph Novotny, Ralph Lilly, Lester Schaefer, James McLeod, Lester Stewart, Milton Egan and Charles Ryan.

COMMUNICATION

Leighton T. Wade, '22, Discusses the Desirability of Definite System of Class Reunions

To the Editor of The Campus:

The reorganization of our alumni association which has taken place within the last two years points conclusively to a general desire to effect a closer union between the College and its large body of graduates. With this as an incentive it seems that we should no longer delay remodeling our haphazard order of class reunions. At present Middlebury has the unenviable distinction of being one of the few eastern colleges without a definite schedule for such anniversary meetings. While class reunions are not known to us, they are infrequent, poorly arranged for the most part and unimpressive. And yet there is no reason why Middlebury can not be assured of a constant and healthy representation of alumni at commencement, and a consequent intimacy of contact that is vastly more effective than any scheme of correspondence.

Experience has shown a surprising lack of initiative among the classes in this respect. It is doubtful if an even dozen have any settled order of reunions, and, while several of the recently graduated classes have adopted plans of their own, the results are anything but uniform. This is only to be expected from the haste with which such matters are disposed of in class meetings, which, in turn, is but the result of our failure in the past to attach any real importance to this function. What we need is a uniform and easily understood schedule which will apply to all classes, in college or out. In the Alumni Council we have a capable and composite body chosen by ourselves and, in the interest of uniformity as well as the minimizing of delay and confusion, it seems logical that they should be the ones to take the matter under consideration and draw up such a schedule as soon as conveniently can be done. Fortunately, there is an abundance of information and experience to be had. Williams College, for example, has, in addition to an old plan of five-year reunions, following first and third-year meetings, the Dix plan of reunions which brings together each year four groups of four classes which were in college together.

Not wholly divorced from the matter of reunions is the subject of commencement dates. Bearing in mind that a large proportion of our alumni are engaged in teaching, probably as large a percentage as to be found in any other college, it seems unfortunate that our graduation ceremonies should precede the closing of the majority of secondary schools. Numerous instances might be sighted where it has been impossible for alumni to attend. Harvard, Amherst and Williams, on the other hand, hold their commencements from one to two weeks later, and at least two of these institutions have summer sessions.

LEIGHTON T. WADE '22.

Cambridge, Mass.,
March 22, 1926.

ALUMNI NOTES

'85—Julius V. Sturtevant writes he is at 40 Lafayette Place, Burlington.

'03—James M. Wright is now at Sarasota, Fla. He gives his address as Box 2198, that city.

'08—William H. Hayford is at 142 E. 33rd St., Paterson, N. J.

'12—Blanche Bonner gives her present address as 74 Fenwood Road, Brookline, Mass.

'13—Fannie Gertrude Alden is living at 29 Pleasant Place, Arlington, N. J.

'13—George C. Dade is now at 83 Grotto Avenue, Providence, R. I.

'15—George McLaughlin is now at Camillus, N. Y.

ex-'20—Maurice E. Walbridge, after 5 years as an instructor of history in the Rutland High School, has resigned to devote all of his time to the real estate business which he has carried on for the past three summers.

ex-'20—Dora Gibson is now Mrs. Herbert Redden, 37 Boynton St., Waltham, Mass.

'24—Clifford A. Oakley gives his address as 10 Kearney St., Newark, N. J. He writes that he began his duties as an investigator in the Claim Department of Aetna Insurance Co., the first of this month and that so far he likes the work very much. Tap says also, "Bob Doolittle and Savage are with the same company so I have seen them quite frequently."

ex-'20—Raymond C. Willey was married March 13, 1926, to Sadie Hamilton, at Schenectady, N. Y. Mr. Willey has been with the General Electric at Schenectady the past 3 years. Mr. and Mrs. Willey will reside at 1902 Delamont Ave., Schenectady, N. Y.

Dr. Geo. L. Cady of New York Speaks at Vespers

Declares That Responsibility For All Things Lies Within The Individual

"The kingdom of God cometh not with observation, and when men shall say, 'Lo here,' and 'Lo there,' look not after them, for behold: the kingdom of God is within you," was the text used by Dr. George L. Cady, of New York City, in his address at Sunday Vespers.

Personal, as well as social problems would much more easily be solved if we would realize that all responsibility lies on the inside and not on the outside, as many maintain.

When each of us shall say, "Create in me a clean heart, oh God, and renew a right spirit in me," and, "God be merciful unto me a sinner,"—we shall have a new day.

"There is no Hell neither here nor there, except that which is within us, of our ingenuity." So likewise the kingdom of happiness is in a state of mind. "If we could only Charleston through life all would be fine, but we have to stop long enough to pay the orchestra and that's another story. If we want happiness we must keep busy. Half the troubles of this world are imaginary and it takes time to think them up. The kingdom of God is within you. Seek there and ye shall find it."

CALENDAR

Advance notices of College activities signed by one authorized and left in The Campus Office by 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon will be printed in the week's calendar.

Wednesday—

7:45 p. m. French Club meeting.

8:00 p. m. Freshman-Sophomore basketball game, McCullough gymnasium.

Thursday—

8:00 p. m. Wig and Pen, Playhouse, Groups 1, 2and 13.

Friday—

11:00 a. m. Easter recess begins.

Tuesday, April 6—

8:00 a. m. College exercises begin.

COMMUNICATION

Holiday Fellowship Association Offers Enjoyment To Travelers In England, Says Writer

To the Editor of The Campus:

Students contemplating an inexpensive trip abroad this summer, particularly those interested in the British Isles, should know of the existence of The Holiday Fellowship Association, a non profit-making organization which has as its purpose: "to organize holiday making, to provide for the healthy enjoyment of leisure, to encourage love of the open air, and to promote social and international friendship."

President of the Association is Mr. Charles Trevelyn, Member of Parliament and Ex-President of the Board of Education.

The Holiday Fellowship, as yet known to few Americans, has for more than thirty years been helping British young people get the most out of their vacations with the least expenditure. Since the war they have been joined by an increasing number of students and teachers from every corner of Europe. Last year the number of Swedes, Danes, Dutch and Germans exceeded the American quota which meant that the few American students while they enjoyed great popularity, found themselves the target of more questions and requests to interpret the American point of view than they could adequately satisfy.

The Holiday Fellowship is by no means an exclusively academic group. The host at any one of the simple life "centers" maintained in nineteen of the most beautiful sea and mountain locations of England, Scotland, Wales, Switzerland, France and Germany, is often a conservative Cambridge or Oxford student. But he is equally likely to be a Clyde-side Socialist, a conscientious objector and a Labor candidate for parliament. Every point of view is represented among the guests who represent widely varying tastes and circumstances and the resultant discussions are illuminating in the extreme.

There is no quicker or surer way for an absolute stranger to leap directly into the life of the country and into a sure welcome from a group of congenial companions than to frequent the H. F. centers. Everyone is on his own, there are no cliques, the formality of introductions is waived. The myth of British aloofness which originated with Americans who spend a few weeks in English city hotels in the company of their fellow-countrymen, restricting their contact with the natives to bits of conversation with waiters and taxi-drivers, vanishes into thin air.

Guests usually stay from one to two weeks at any one center and the centers are so distributed in or near places of historical and scenic interest that it is possible to make a rather complete tour of the British Isles, staying entirely at H. F. centers. The number of guests at any one center is never too large for a personal acquaintance to be made with all.

Charges for room and board at the British centers last summer averaged $14 a week. Expenses for excursions varied according to the use made of buses, carriages, ferries, etc., but averaged an additional $2.50 a week. Expenses at the Continental centers ran somewhat higher.

(Continued on page 3)

BASEBALL TEAM IS SHAPING UP WELL

New Men Have Ability; Few Veterans Are Available

With the close of the first month of practice, prospects for a strong baseball nine this spring seem to be fairly bright. A large number of candidates have reported to Coach Klevenow and although there are a few veterans among them, there does not seem to be a lack of good material. Thus far the work has, of necessity, been confined to the gymnasium but it is hoped that the team will be able to get out-of-doors directly after the vacation. There will only be a little over two weeks between the opening of college and the first game which is scheduled to be played April 22 against Springfield at Springfield.

In the outfield, Captain Novotny is the only letter man although March gained some experience last year as a substitute. Hasseltine is the only letter man in the infield but Collins and Rice both played for part of last season so the inner defense will not be entirely green.

The pitching staff is fast working into shape around the veterans, Towne, Williams and Simmons. Hingston '29, star performer last year for the Lynn Classical High school and one of the best schoolboy pitchers in eastern Massachusetts, is one of Coach Klevenow's best prospects in the line of pitching candidates.

The team seems to be strongly fortified behind the plate. At present, Conley, first string catcher of last season, seems practically assured of the position, but Willis and Osborne are giving him a stiff fight.

Prospects at present indicate that the team will be made up of some good hitters. On the basis of what the men have done so far, Coach Klevenow will probably choose a tentative varsity squad which will be called back for training during the latter part of the Easter vacation. Considering the way some of the other sports have been hit by ineligibility, it is rather dangerous to say much about the probable varsity lineup until after mid-semester grades have been released.

French Faculty Members To Present Plays Tonight

Le Cercle Francais is anticipating a very interesting entertainment at its meeting this evening when the members of the French Faculty will present three comedies. "Le Chapeau Rouge" will be played by Professor Freeman and Madame Huet. M. and Madame Ranty will take the leading roles in "L'Heure du Diner". Mr. Huet and Henriette Ranty will perform in "La Paix Chez Soi." Dramatic ability has previously been demonstrated by most of these people and tonight's performance is expected to be one of the best.

This entertainment is not only open to members of the Cercle Francais but to anyone who is interested in French. At this time the final announcement will be made for the girls, concerning rooms in the Chateau for the coming year.

Epidemics of influenza and grippe are prevalent in many of the Eastern colleges and universities. Several colleges have closed early for Easter recess on account of sickness.

Congregational Church
Henry C. Newell, Pastor
Telephone 64
Sunday Morning Worship 10:45 a.m.
Students' Forum 12:00 noon
All Students are Welcome

The Epworth League
Helpfully Christian
Sunday Evenings

MUSICAL PROGRAM IS WELL RECEIVED

Organ Students Give Pleasing Recital In Mead Memorial Chapel Last Night

A very enjoyable musical program was given in the Mead Memorial Chapel last evening by students in the musical department. Four organ solos were given, interspersed with violin and vocal solos. Seven students rendered selections.

The program was as follows:

Organ—Festival Prelude——Stanley Reiff
Agnes I. Goss, '27
Violin—An Old Refrain——Kreisler
Arthur Yeaw, '28
Organ—Prelude to "The Deluge"——Saint-Saens
Louise Thompson, '28
Baritone Solos—
Beam from Yonder Star——Bullard
Yesteryear——Grift
Nobody Knows the Trouble I See——Arr. by Johnson
Walter H. Thompson, '26
Organ—
Symphony, 1st movement——Schubert-Lemaire
Vera Tower, '26
Violin—Hymn to St. Cecilia——Gounod
James Thomson, '29
Organ—Toccata, d minor——Gordon-Balch-Nevin
Fredricka Alexander, '29

Two Popular Preachers To Fill Pulpit After Easter

Two speakers who have proven to be especially popular with the Middlebury student body are to fill the college pulpit on the two Sundays after vacation. Dr. John M. Thomas '90, president of Middlebury from 1908 to 1921, formerly president of Penn State and now president of Rutgers will be the chapel speaker April 11.

The following Sunday, April 18, Rev. Albert G. Butzer of Ridgewood, N. J., will be the speaker. Three years ago, Rev. Butzer preached a very powerful sermon here on the topic "Be sure your sins will find you out." Since that time his annual visits have been looked forward to with anticipation by the student body.

Fellowship Association Has Great Possibilities For Travelers

(Continued from page 2)

The Fellowship, through its friends on the Continent is able to offer occasional trips from England to Denmark, where the Worker's College is visited; to Germany where a group from the German Youth movement is joined on a walking tour through the Black Forest, the Rhineland or other interesting sections, and to Holland where they join Dutch students on a bicycle tour of the Netherlands.

Persons wishing to be sure of getting accommodation at any of the centers this summer should write immediately to Arthur Leonard, Bryn Corach, Conway, North Wales, stating the time of their arrival, length of stay and part of the country in which they are most interested. It would be well to enclose a deposit of $5 as pledge of good faith in making reservations.

Illustrated circulars and information may be obtained from Mr. Leonard for the asking, or questions may be answered somewhat more quickly by addressing Benson Heale Harvey, Harvard '26, 99 Brattle St., Cambridge, Mass., or the writer, Georgiana Lockwood, Wellesley '21, 2710 Cathedral Ave., Washington, D. C.

NEW TOPCOATS
The new Topcoats are here in all the new colorings and styles, many new shades this spring.
NAVY BLUE
SILVER GRAY and the
NEW TANS
The C. M. Hanks Store
W. H. Farrell, Jr., Prop.

Boardman Peace Prize

The attention of all members of the junior class is invited again to the annual prize of thirty dollars offered for the best essay by a member of the class, in favor of peace and against war as a method of settling international disputes.

This year the essays are to be handed to Professor Abbott on or before Thursday, May thirteenth.

CAMPUS CONSIDERS REVISIONS IN STAFF

May Create Managing Editor and Change Duties of Woman's Editor

The CAMPUS next year may be in the hands of a staff which will be headed by an editor-in-chief, assisted by a managing editor and a women's editor, if an amendment proposed at yesterday's meeting of the board is passed by that body after vacation and approved by the governing undergraduate bodies of the men's and women's college.

The change has been proposed by James S. Jackson '26, editor-in-chief, and is a result of a feeling, shared by the editors of the past few years, that the theory of the present system does not work out in practise. The CAMPUS at the present time is directed by an editor-in-chief and an associate editor who are to work co-ordinately in the publication of the paper and who are assisted by two news editors and four assistant editors. Both the editor and his associate receive three credits a semester in the English department for their work.

In the actual practise of putting out the paper, however, it is found that the greater part of the duties fall upon the editor-in-chief, mainly on account of the fact that the greater part of the news originates in the men's college. He is responsible not only for his share of the editorial policy of the paper but must also do all the routine work of collecting news, editing it, writing headlines and handling the makeup. It often falls upon the editor to write a greater portion of the news. In practise, the associate editor does not, nor can she be expected to, assume all the duties that the editor does. The present constitution however, ranks the two on a par and they both receive the same amount of credit.

The proposed amendment would place the editor-in-chief as the executive head of the paper, would free him from all details and would enable him to devote all his time to constructive work in shaping the paper's editorial policy. He would be solely responsible for the editorial column. The managing editor would assume all responsibility for the collection and publication of the news and the general makeup of the paper. Working with him as far as the news of the women's college is concerned, would be a woman's editor who would be responsible for women's news. She would not receive credits for her work, nor would she be expected to do anything beyond the duties which naturally fall to her. The news editors would be eliminated and there would be assistant editors as at present except that seniors would be ineligible for positions as assistants. Ordinarily, the managing editor should be a junior and should be advanced to the position of editor-in-chief in his senior year.

Sentiment on the present CAMPUS board seems to be quite generally in favor of the proposed change. According to the publication's constitution, it could not be voted on at yesterday's meeting. It will be taken up directly after vacation and if approved it will be presented to the Student Council and Student Government Council for their approval or disapproval.

Patronize Our Advertisers

SOPHS VS. FROSH IN GYM TONIGHT

Defeat Will Spoil Yearlings' Hopes of Doffing Pea-Greens Before June; Both Teams Strong

The third of the freshman-sophomore events will be played off in the gym tonight when the first and second year men meet in their annual net battle. The sophs should be able to pick a strong quintet from such a group as Maynard, Ferry, Collins, Marchukaitis, McChesney, Palmer, Hinman and Arnold, while an equally effective freshman line-up can be made from such material as Willis, Henderson, Goldstein, Lankes, Schmidt, Spooner and Deedman.

The freshmen must win this game in order to have a chance of removing their "pea-greens," Junior Week. The remaining contests are the baseball game and tug of war. Having lost the football game, the freshman must win all of the remaining events in order to remove their traditional headgear in May. They won the hat scrap last fall.

Ryan, '26 has been coaching the sophomore team and Reigelman the freshmen.

Malam and Lee Chosen To Publish Kaleidoscope

(Continued from page 1)

Lee has also had some of his work published in the Saxonian and is a CAMPUS reporter. He is on the Blue Baboon staff. His suggestion for the use of the Old Chapel was awarded honorable mention in the recent contest. Miss Fales, the associate Editor, has done unusually good work in her positions as assistant editor on both the Saxonian and the CAMPUS. She is a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority. Miss Lockerby has been prominent in women's atheltics, being a member of her class basketball team and college champion in tennis. She is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

The board of associates chosen by the four who hold executive positions, is made up as follows:

Associates: Clarence P. Young, Literary; Helen Bradley, Literary; Frederick O. Whittemore, Advertising; John B. Walker, Circulation; Afton B. Hilliard, Photography; Gertrude Parsons, Photography; William K. Donald, Athletics; Eleanor Holden, Athletics; Donald P. Talbott, Organizations; Anne Belisle, Organizations; Marjorie Cross, Social; Albert D. Leahy, Humor; William W. Crawford, At..

This staff will be assisted by the following:

Carlton Dix, Circulation; Richard Gould, Advertising; Warren Stearns, Advertising; Lois Robinson, Art; Dorothy Able, Circulation; Edith Markwell, Circulation.

Wig and Pen will present one-act plays for the first time this semester in the Playhouse tomorrow evening.

LAW STUDENTS
THE BOSTON UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL
Trains students in principles of the law and the technique of of the profession and prepares them for active practice wherever the English system of law prevails. Course for LL.B., fitting for admission to the bar requires three school years.
Post graduate course of one year leads to degree of LL.M.
Two years of college instruction is required for admission.
Limited Special Scholarships $75 per year to needy college graduates.
For Catalogue Address
HOMER ALBERS, Dean
11 Ashburton Place, Boston

JUNIOR MARSHALLS CHOSEN BY SENIORS

McCutcheon and Miss Deedman to Serve; Novotny Heads Committee

Three important elections took place at the meeting of the senior class held Monday afternoon. Joseph C. Novotny of Milwaukee, Wis., was elected chairman of Commencement Week and Mervin W. McCutcheon '27 of New Britain, Conn., and Miriam H. Deedman '27 of New Rochelle, N. Y., were chosen to act as Junior Marshalls at Commencement.

Novotny has been one of the prominent men of the class during the past four years. He is a football and baseball man and captain of baseball. He served on both the Sophomore Hop and Junior Prom committees. He has been active in dramatics, especially at constructing scenery. Novotny is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi, Sages and Waubanakee.

Mr. McCutcheon and Miss Deedman have also been active in college and class affairs. Mr. McCutcheon is a member of Chi Psi and Sages while Miss Deedman is a member of Pi Beta Phi.

At a meeting of the class last week, the cap and gown committee was chosen. Its members are Earl Samson, chairman, W. R. Rice, Charlotte Raymond, Harriet Miner and Eleanor Frost.

The class has drawn up a resolution which will be presented to the faculty, asking that seniors be allowed to have cars at college for the remainder of the semester.

OPERA HOUSE
WEEK OF MARCH 24
WEDNESDAY—March 24
Tom Moore and Florence Vidor
in
"THE TROUBLE WITH WIVES"
News
Two Shows, 7:10, 8:30, Admission 20c
THURSDAY—March 25
Monte Blue and Vera Reynolds in
"THE LIMITED MAIL"
Pathe Comedy
Two Shows, 7:10, 8:30, Admission 20c
FRIDAY—March 26
Marie Provost and Kenneth Harlan
in
"BOBBED HAIR"
Educational Comedy
Two Shows, 7:10, 8:30, Admission 20c
SATURDAY—March 27
All Star Cast in
"THANK YOU"
Comedy and News
Two Shows, 7:10, 8:30, Admission 20c
TUESDAY—March 29
Buck Jones in
"LAZY BONES"
Pathe Comedy
Two Shows, 7:10, 8:30, Admission 20c

SPRING BRINGS
STRAWBERRIES
You're Right.
FRESH
STAWBERRY SUNDAE
Just what we are serving. Our tempting and delicious combinations are incomparably delicious.
Try one today at
CALVI'S
FOR QUALITY

Gardner J. Duncan
PICTURE FRAMING
ANTIQUES
Second Hand Furniture
74 Main St.

Patronize Our Advertisers

NEUTRAL FIVE WINS SERIES FROM D.K.E.

Gains Possession of Trophy; Final Game One-Sided; Score 39-14

What had been expected to be one of the closest baskeball games of the year turned out to be a walkaway for the Neutrals when that team met Delta Kappa Epsilon last Wednesday evening in the final game for the intramural championship of the college. The non-fraternity men, who had lost out to the Dekes by five points two nights before, after having previously won six consecutive games in the series, played in their best form of the season and completely outclassed their opponents, winning by the score of 39 to 14. The victory gives them possession for the coming year of the silver loving cup offered by the Sages and won last year by Delta Kappa Epsilon.

The Neutrals started off with a rush from the very first and soon piled up a lead which assured them the game. They led by a score of 15 to 6 at the close of the first half. In the second half they found the basket even more often, Ferry, Marchukaitis and Goldstein looping them through the net with surprising regularity. Ferry, high point man for the season in the interfraternity league, led his teammates with fourteen points. Marchukaitis made nine and Goldstein seven. McChesney did the best work for D. K. E., tallying six points.

The summary.

Neutrals

	G	F	P
Ferry, lf	7	0	14
Goldstein, rf	3	1	7
Pernaa, rf	2	0	4
Williams, rf	0	0	0
Marchukaitis, c	4	1	9
Henderson, lg	2	0	4
Kammerer, rg	0	1	1
	18	3	39

D. K. E.

	G	F	P
Fales, lf	0	0	0
Roberts, lf	0	0	0
McChesney, rf	3	0	6
Potter, c, rg	1	1	3
Arnold, c	1	0	2
Willis, lg	1	1	3
Williams, rg	0	0	0
	6	2	14

AT CUSHMAN'S

New Tailored Waists
$2.98
New Crickett Sweaters
$5.75

SMOCKS—The Big Hit!
have taken the country by storm.
For School and College.
Protects the dress—are very chic.
Priced at $2.25 to $5.75
DYER'S

LUNCHES
SERVED AT ALL HOURS

Homemade
Ice Cream and Cake

15 College Street Phone 17-3

Get your
Easter Cards and Candies
before you go home, so you will have more time to yourself while there.

H. M. Louthood
The Rexall Drug Store

Phi Beta Kappa Holds Initiation Banquet

The annual initiation banquet of the Vermont Beta of Phi Beta Kappa was held at the Addison House last Wednesday evening. A large number of resident members as well as the newly-elected members were present.

Professor William S. Burrage, president of the local chapter, served as toastmaster. Talks were given by A. S. Harriman, Mrs. E. C. Bryant, Frances M. Harder '26, Dana S. Hawthorne '26 and Professors Raymond H. White, Charles A. Adams, and Harry H. Clark.

The initiates, all of whom are members of the senior class, were Blanche N. Blood, William B. Grow, Frances M. Harder, Dana S. Hawthorne, Elsie C. Hummel, Marion E. Laughton, Helen I. Lindquist, Harriet C. Miner, Eugene V. Montandon, Mary C. Moore, Charlotte Raymond, Auburn A. Ross, Annie Smith, Marion B. Swift, George A. Thomson and Mildred I. Williams.

FERRY LEADS IN LEAGUE SCORING

Neutral Scores Total of 81 Points; McChesney and Marchaukaitis Rank High Also

Edward M. Ferry, who played a forward position on the Neutral quintet during the past season, was the winner of high point honors in the interfraternity series which has just closed. During the six games on the regular schedule, he tallied a total of 55 points, or a little over nine points a game. He was also high point man in the three game championship series with D. K. E., tallying 26 points. In the regular league series, McChesney of D. K. E. holds second place with 51 points while Marchukaitis, of the Neutrals who tallied 47 is third. The order of these two is reversed in the final series, the Neutral making 20 and the Deke 19.

Lankes of Beta Kappa ranks fourth for the season with 40 points and Sorenson of Chi Psi fifth with 37. Sorenson's record is remarkable for the reason that he played only two or three games with his fraternity team, advancing to the varsity after mid-years. All of the other high scorers took part in six games.

Those who scored more than twenty-five points during the season are Ferry, Neutrals, 55; McChesney, D. K. E., 51, Marchukaitis, Neut. 47; Lankes, B. K., 40; Sorenson, Chi Psi, 37; Jones, S. P. E., 36; Willis, D. K. E., 34; M. Hoyt, S. P. E., 33; Hindes, K. D. R., 30; Goldstein, Neutrals, 30; Bicknell, K. D. R., 28; Pernaa, Neutrals, 28; Gruggel, Chi Psi, 27; Roberts, D. K. E., 27.

Those who scored more than ten points in the championship series are Ferry, 26; Marchukaitis, 20; McChesney, 19; Willis, 15; Goldstein, 12; Pernaa, 10; Potter, 10.

Here's wishing you a pleasant vacation.
GOVE'S

P.S. BRING IN YOUR FILMS when you come back and you will be assured of nice snappy pictures. Permanent, too.

GOVE'S
Where Quality Comes First
Up Stairs It Pays to Climb

Spring Overcoat Made to Measure, $40
NECY DORION
Tailor
Middlebury, Vt.

Fine Quality Rubbers
For Men, Women and Children
J. F. NOVAK
The Walk-Over Boot Shop
Repairing Too

USE OF FORWARD PASS IS CURBED

Football Rules Committee Makes Revisions to Govern Game in 1926

At the annual meeting of the American Intercollegiate Football Rules Committee, held at the Hotel Roosevelt, New York, on Saturday, two very important changes, and several subordinate revisions were made to the present rules. These changes will govern college football during the season of 1926.

The most important of the new changes is a limitation placed upon the forward pass, whereby a team shall be penalized five yards for failure to complete a second or third pass in any series of four downs before a first down is made. The object of this ruling is to prevent indiscriminate passing by the losing team during the last few minutes of play, and so prevent stalling for time.

Another important change affects the safety. Under the new ruling the ball will no longer be put in play in scrimmage on the thirty yard line, but the leather will be brought out to the twenty yard line, and the team in possession of the ball will be forced to kick. The kick may be made from placement, or may be a drop-kick or punt, and furthermore, the opposing team will line up on the thirty yard line, so that a blocked kick, with a possible second cafety, is virtually impossible. In this way, the team that has made a safety will be unable to regain possession of the ball close to its own goal line, and the evil of successive safeties will be curbed.

Under the new regulations a ball will be dead once it has rolled past the lines marking either the ends or the sides of the playing field. The ball will go into the possession of the team whose player or players touched it last while it was upon the field proper. If a blocked kick shall occur near the end lines and the ball be sent behind the goal posts it shall be considered a safenty.

A new ruling was also adopted in regard to players running off the field during the progress of a kick-off or any on-side kick. A player doing this will, under the new rule, be ineligible to receive the ball, but will be allowed to tackle the opposing player who may have received the kick.

THE GREY SHOP

Pigeon and Dexdale Hose
In all favored Spring shades
$1.50, $1.65 and $2.00

THE SATISFACTORY HOSE

Tel. 202-3 E. E. ROSS

State and Local Taxes Paid on All Deposits

The Addison County Trust Company
Middlebury, Vt.

Safe Deposit Boxes for rent

The National Bank of Middlebury

Capital — $100,000.00
Surplus and Undivided Profits
$100,000.00

Charles E. Pinney, President
John A. Fletcher, Vice-Pres.
P. J. Hincks, Cashier

Sigma Phi Epsilon Has Initiation Banquet

Vermont Beta Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon held its annual initiatory banquet Monday evening at the Addison House. Thirty-six active members attended, including four representatives from the other New England chapters.

Dr. Allen M. Kline acted as toastmaster and toasts were given by C. Vincent Grant '26, Chauncey A. Niles '29, J. Audrey Clark '26, and the chapter representative from Vermont Alpha at Norwich, and New Hampshire Alpha at Dartmouth. A number of impromptu speeches concluded the program.

The entering delegation includes J. Leland Davis '27, Donald H. Penn '28, and from the class of 1929 Francis L. G. Agne, John A. Furher, Thad R. Jackson, Otis R. Jason, Harold L. Jones, F. Ryeburn Lynch, Edward F. McLaughlin, David H. McLean, Arthur E. Newcomb, Jr., Chauncey A. Niles and pledges Clayton A. Gray and Sidney C. E. Livingston.

Bureau of Accuracy

An incorrect statement was made in last week's issue of the CAMPUS, to the effect that E. K. Hasseltine '27, captain-elect of basketball, is the only man in the present junior class to have received a varsity letter in a major sport. S. S. Eddy, Jr., '27, who broke the college record for the javelin throw in his freshman year, holds a letter in track.

All of the copy for the 1927 Kaleidoscope has gone to the printer and proofs have been read on a large part of it. It seems probable that the book will be on the campus by Junior Week or possibly a little before that time. Subscriptions to it may be made at any time through the circulation manager or his assistants.

ASK ANY MAN
Past the age of Fifty
IF HE IS GLAD
that he did not take out more life insurance when he was young. His physical condition may be such that he can add to his insurance now, but think what he has lost.

HAD HE STARTED
an insurance program at the age of eighteen or twenty, the small deposit would have been the same or less today; he would have enjoyed the protection during the thirty years and the accumulations under his policy would have become an accomplished fact—a sum available; not a might-have-been that he intended to save but didn't.
Why not permit our agents the privilege of showing you how you may improve upon the good intentions of the man who did not insure young?

National Life Insurance Company
MONTPELIER, VERMONT
Seventy-six years of constant Policyholder Service.

The Up-to-Date
Barber and Beauty Shop, For Ladies' and Gentlemen Who Care
Over 54 Main Street
MIDDLEBURY VERMONT
N. G. NADEAU, Prop.

HOME CONCERT FOR GLEE CLUB IN APRIL

Several Out-of-Town Concerts To Be Given After Vacation

Plans are being made for several concerts for the Men's Glee Club to be held after the spring vacation. According to the present tentative schedule, the club will make at least two trips and will present a home concert.

Arrangements have been made to present a concert in Salem, N. Y., on April 16. The home concert will be given some day in the last week of April and the club will go on another trip the following week. On this trip, tentative dates have been arranged at New Britain, Conn., for May 5, and Keene, N. H., May 6 or 7. The only public appearance which the club has made thus far this year was that in the New England intercollegiate Glee Club Contest at Boston, February 13.

Bring Your Films here to be developed and printed right!
Frost's Pharmacy

Easter FOOTWEAR Styles
Are Fully Represented at

THE EMPORIUM
5 Merchants Row
B. W. Warren, Proprietor

"SERVICE"
That's Our Motto
Hotel Addison
H. C. Barrett, Manager
Middlebury, Vt.

PATRICK TOP COATS
$25.00
GEORGE N. SHAMBO
The Better Place to Shop

Get a box of —
Martha Washington Candy
70c per lb.
Fresh Every Week
Aines' Variety Shop

Day or Night Rates Reasonable
Mark Turner
Automobile Livery
Chrysler Sedan
Tel. 166-3

Call on
J. C. TRUDO
When you want a Hair Cut, Shave, Electric Massage or Shampoo
67 Main St. Middlebury, Vt.

Sanitary
Two Chairs at Guillette's
Tonsorial Parlor